Rare Angel Award for Suzanne Pasmans

Brochure 'After the Diagnosis' translated into Georgian

One of our patient advocates is Prof. Dr. Tinatin Tkemaladze in Georgia (photo: third from the right). She works at the Medical University in the capital Tbilisi and supervises a number of students at this university. They have translated the brochure 'after the diagnosis' into Georgian and this has been a huge amount of work. We are very grateful to them for this.
